Dear Certified Addiction Professional:

This is just a reminder that your IAAP Certification expires April 1, 2010. In order to keep your certification current, you must renew by this date. IAAP is offering the following options for certification renewal.

- | | |
|--|-------|
| 1) One year certification renewal (members) | $ 80 |
| 2) Two year certification renewal (members) | $160 |
| 3) One year certification renewal (non-members) | $215 |
| 4) Two year certification renewal (non-members) | $430 |

As you know, IAAP has been working hard to get licensure passed in the State of Indiana. Because of these efforts, you will soon be able to be licensed as a Licensed Addiction Counselor (LAC) or Licensed Clinical Addiction Counselor (LCAC) directly through the Indiana Professional Licensing Agency (IPLA).

It is imperative that your certification is current to be grandfathered into the licensure process. Be sure to visit our website often (www.iaapin.org) for updates and links to the IPLA website.

As your NAADAC state affiliate, we continue to serve you by offering high-quality, low-cost conferences, advocating for Indiana Addiction Professionals nationally, and striving for excellence with integrity in all our transactions.

We are here to serve you. Please feel free to contact any of us on the certification committee or on the IAAP Board if you have questions.

Respectfully,

Katti J. Sneed PhD, LCSW, MSW, ICAC II
